The Clan Macneil Association of America is a non-profit cultural and educational organization. Contributions are tax-deductible. Our IRS TAX Number is 56-1336233. Donations received help defray printing and distribution expenses of THE GALLEY and other educational and charitable expenses incidental to the Association's participation in Scottish events.

PURPOSES: To foster and promote Scottish Clan traditions in friendly association; provide information pertaining to the history, tradition, culture, and present-day life of the Macneils of the Isle of Barra as well as the McNeills of the Inner Hebrides; to support the extended Macneil family around the world; and to foster Highland Games and Gaelic culture, language, music, and tradition.

MEMBERSHIP: The Association includes the MacNeils of Barra, the McNeills of Colonsay, and the McNeills of Ghia. Spelling of these names is insignificant, as there is wide spelling differentiation, originating from our progenitor, Niall of the Nine Hostages, High King of Ireland from 379 to 405 A.D. Others interested in "joining" our family without kinship connections are welcome, as well – an ancient and honorable Clan tradition.

DUES: Applicants for membership are asked to remit $25 for one calendar year membership; renewal will be due the same month the following year. (Foreign membership is $30) One membership includes husband, wife, and all dependant children. Payment by check or money order is requested, Do not send cash. International members should pay by money order.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP: Lifelong membership in the Association is granted to an individual/couple on payment of $1000.

GIFT MEMBERSHIP: Gift memberships are available for family members of friends – an excellent way to bring exciting Clan heritage to others. Please check the gift membership listing on the application and provide the donor's name and address. Renewal requests will be sent to the donor.
